Faith-Based Counseling

A word from the Director...

Dr. Laurel Link

2005 Golf Tournament

October 14, 2005 - Tanglewood Park

CareNet's Golf Tournament offers individuals an opportunity to have fun while supporting the unique services of pastoral counseling.

This ministry which has existed in Winston-Salem since 1947 without soliciting community support, now invites you to be a part of seeing that faith-based counseling remains a part of our community.

The afternoon event offers starting times from 12:30 to 1:30 and includes a catered lunch and post-tournament reception. Each player package includes greens fees and cart, meals, beverages and a player gift pack. A large assortment of prizes will be awarded as well.

Please join us for a day of competition and celebration. We thank you for your support!

CareNet of the Triad, Inc. Welcomes New Staff

David Bradley
Therapist,
Pastoral Counselor

The Rev. David M. Bradley comes to CareNet of the Triad to serve as our Pastoral Counseling Intern. David will be offering counseling services to individuals and families.

David is originally from the Atlanta, Georgia area. Graduating from Columbia Theological Seminary in Decatur, Georgia in 1995, David was ordained by the Presbyterian church (U.S.A.). He served as an associate pastor at First Presbyterian Church in Covington, Georgia (1995-1999) and then as pastor of First Presbyterian Church in Milledgeville, Georgia (1999-2003). Returning to school for more training, he received a masters' degree in marriage and family therapy from Louisville Presbyterian Theological Seminary in December 2004.

David now lives in Winston-Salem, North Carolina with his wife, Margaret Rada, who has begun her work as a counselor at North Carolina School of the Arts. David's hobbies include playing tennis and good music. David brings a wealth of therapeutic and pastoral gifts to the community. His strong desire to work with those in economic adversity brings a wealth of pastoral care. We welcome David's ministry among us. Please direct referrals to 336-716-0855.
